

Magnificent Magical Mud

Magnificent Magical Mud was written to support second grade learners. Students will complete mud science projects and research online informational text to write a mud report. Upcoming reflective blog posts will focus on how and what students learned through project-based learning activities.